

Anna Khomichko's consummate artistry rests on a powerful musical conviction, intelligence, and maturity. She creates an astonishing delicate sound with her crystal-clear touch and mindful interpretations. Her fascinating personality and charisma immediately mesmerises any sort of audience.

Communicating with a young generation in the language they understand best –Anna is on a mission to constantly provide high-quality content for her fast-growing blogs about classical music on YouTube and Instagram. She creates a role model of a young female leading musician and aspires to inspire thousands of teenagers, and in fact, people of any age, background or profession.

Highlights of the 2019/2020 season are Anna Khomichko's "Wagner am Klavier" recitals with a program consisting of unknown piano works by Wagner in Berlin, Munich, Dresden, Bremen and Luzern as well as lecture recitals at the Bechtein Center Cologne and in the Kunsthau Salzwedel with her program "Klassik im modernen Glanz" that includes works by C.P.E. Bach, L. v. Beethoven, F. Schubert and J. Brahms.

This season Anna will debut in Sochi, Russia performing Tchaikovsky's 1st piano concerto with the Sochi Symphonic Orchestra. In previous seasons Anna was seen performing as a soloist with the Jena Philharmonic Orchestra, the Bryansk Philharmonic Orchestra, the Murmansk Philharmonic Orchestra, the Orchestra of the Lithuanian Academy of Music and the Symphonic Orchestra of the Russian Gnessins Academy of Music.

Anna Khomichko is a winner of 15 international competitions, including the 1st prize at the International Music Festival Valencia 2013 Music Award, 1st prize at the International Competition "Citta di Pesaro", 1st prize at the International Competition "Theacher-Pupil", 2nd prize at the International Anton Rubinstein Piano Competition, (Düsseldorf, 2018) and many others.

Anna has got a scholarship from the President of the Russian Federation, the Yehudi Menuhin Foundation, the Yuriy Rozum Foundation, the DOMS Foundation and the Anna Ruths Foundation.

She presently studies with Professor Claudio Martinez Mehner and Professor Nina Tichman at the Hochschule für Musik und Tanz in Cologne.