

Anna Khomichko's consummate artistry rests on a powerful musical conviction, intelligence, and maturity. Praised for her eclectic repertoire ranging from Scarlatti to music of 21st century, Anna is committed to the music of baroque and classical period as well as to the works of Russian composers. Her fascinating personality and charisma immediately mesmerise any sort of audience.

Communicating with a young generation in the language they understand best – Anna is on a mission to constantly provide high-quality content for her fast-growing blogs about classical music on YouTube and Instagram. She creates a role model of a young female leading musician and aspires to inspire thousands of teenagers, and in fact, people of any age, background, or profession.

The highlights of the 2021/2022 season are the recital with works by Russian composers (Rachmaninov, Scriabin and Medtner) in the "Karlsruher Meisterkonzerte" concert series in the Karlsruhe Konzerthaus, as well as the presentation of the new program "Mozart and his contemporaries" including works by Mozart, C. P. E. Bach, J. C. Bach and M. Clementi in different concert halls in Germany. The program "Mozart and his contemporaries" is planned to be recorded in 2022 for CD together with the music label GENUIN in cooperation with the SWR (Southwest Broadcasting of Germany).

Anna Khomichko also had great success with her project "Wagner at the piano" in the 2019/2020 season, where she performed unknown piano works by Richard Wagner in Leipzig, Berlin, Munich, Dresden and Bremen.

In the previous seasons Anna was seen performing as a soloist with the Jena Philharmonic Orchestra, the Bryansk Philharmonic Orchestra, the Murmansk Philharmonic Orchestra, the Orchestra of the Lithuanian Academy of Music and the Symphonic Orchestra of the Russian Gnessins Academy of Music. In the "Corona season" 2020/2021 Anna was to make her debut with Tchaikovsky's 1st Piano Concerto together with the Sochi Symphony Orchestra.

Anna Khomichko is a winner of 15 international competitions, including the 1st prize at the International Music Festival Valencia 2013 Music Award (Spain, 2013), 1st prize at the International Competition "Citta di Pesaro" (Italy, 2007) and many others.

She has been granted scholarships by the President of the Russian Federation, the Yehudi Menuhin Foundation, the Yuri Rozum Foundation, the DOMS Foundation and the Anna Ruths Foundation.

Anna started to play the piano at the age of four. In 2015 she graduated from the Russian Gnessin Academy of Music in Moscow. Afterwards, she completed her bachelor's degree at the Hochschule für Musik Franz Liszt in Weimar and her master's degree with Professor Claudio Martinez Mehner at the Hochschule für Musik und Tanz in Cologne.

Latest update: December 2021

This approved biography is not to be altered or shortened without the artist's permission. For shorter versions, please visit "download" on the website. Please replace older versions.